

KAYLA DANTZ

 @k._dantz

 kayla@kdantz.com

 PO BOX 3021
Fayetteville, MA 01745

PHOTO-TEXTILE ARTIST

Kayla Dantz is a Massachusetts-based photo-textile artist whose work blends photography with traditional fiber techniques, transforming personal and archival images into hand-woven photographic textiles that carefully explore the nature of time and memory.

ARTISTIC PRACTICE

Independent Artist

K. Dantz 2024 - Present

- Developing concepts for woven photographic works exploring memory, time, and image fragmentation.
- Hand-producing original woven-photo collections.
- Collaborating on commissioned woven-photo works for both personal and commercial uses.
- Creating and editing digital and print renderings of the original and commissioned work, both before and after project completion.
- Photographing and videography for direct use in artwork, website imagery, and social media marketing.
- Managing all aspects of business: customer service, website design, marketing, project and studio management, order fulfillment, inventory management, etc.

EDUCATION

BFA, Fashion Design

Parsons School of Design, May 2024

EXHIBITIONS

EMERGE IX, Bond Millen Gallery

Richmond, Virginia, 2025

Soft Archives, IA & A at Hillyer

Washington, D.C., 2025

METHODS & MATERIALS

- Photography, analog & digital
- Weaving & other textile processes
- Primarily natural fabrics & yarn:
50/50 recycled & organic cotton,
locally sourced virgin wool
- Design software: Adobe Creative Suite, Procreate

WEBSITE / SHOP

www.kdantz.com

Link to shop current work for sale including originals & print reproductions, explore past work and collections, and inquire about custom projects.

SELECTED PRESS

- Kayla Dantz's woven photographs hold up a mirror to the "fragmented nature of memory" - It's Nice That, 2025